MISCELLANEOUS.

OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES IN MYSORE.

Circular No. 4154-5153—C. S., dated 6*th December* 1918.

In connection with the arrangements made by the Government to meet the present position with regard to the supply of rice and ragi, the following instructions are given to the Co-operative Societies:

(1) Co-operative Societies may, after obtaining a license, undertake the sale of rice and ragi.
(2) The rates charged should not exceed those fixed by the Government.
(3) The quantity sold should conform strictly to the conditions imposed by the Government.

Breach of any of these conditions will involve the cancellation of the license.

During the continuance of the present situation articles may be sold to members and non-members alike. All transactions with non-members should be strictly for cash. It is desirable that the same rule should be applied to members also.

Regarding the purchase and transport of food-stuffs, a license has to be obtained from the Director of Civil Supplies if the articles are imported from outside the Mysore State, from the Food Controller if the articles are transported from one district to another within the State, from the Deputy Commissioner if the articles are transported from one taluk to another within the same district and from the Amildar if the transport is from village to village within the same taluk. Further, these articles can be purchased only from localities which have been certified as containing an excess of them over local demands. In this connection it may be pointed out to members of Co-operative Societies who may have stocks
